

There's an old Chinese Proverb that says "A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step." When thinking about starting a career or changing careers, that proverb rings true. It all starts with a single step—figuring out what you want to do, and then going out and doing it.

Here are some great assessment tools to help you along your journey. They may not give you the final answer to that age-old question of what you want to be when you grow up, but you will have started the journey. And when asked what you want to be, you can answer truthfully: "I'm exploring my options."
